Scenario Learning Recognized as Best in Industry
CIOReview and Education Technology Insights Publications Name Company a 2015 Top Education Technology and LMS Provider

Cincinnati, Ohio (Oct. 30, 2015) – Scenario Learning, LLC, the leading developer of safety and compliance solutions for schools, colleges and workplaces, recently earned two prominent awards from leading publications for its suite of web-based programs. Education Technology Insights voted Scenario Learning one of the "10 Hottest LMS Companies" for 2015, while CIOReview recognized the company in its 2015 list of "50 Most Promising Education Tech Solution Providers."

Each year, CIOReview and Education Technology Insights compile exclusive lists of ed-tech companies that have been selected by a panel of experts and members of each magazine's editorial boards. The companies are showcased in special issues of the magazines focused on the effective use of technology in education.

"Scenario Learning has been on our radar for some time now, and we are happy to showcase the company this year due to their continuing excellence in delivering leading technology solutions that are making schools safer and more inclusive," said Harvi Sachar, publisher and founder of CIO Review. "Scenario Learning's solutions continued to break new ground within the past year, benefiting its customers around the globe, and we're excited to have them featured on our top companies list."

Scenario Learning's education brands include SafeSchools, SafeColleges and Exceptional Child. The SafeSchools and SafeColleges product portfolios include web-based solutions for staff and student training, bullying/incident reporting, SDS management and accident tracking. Exceptional Child is an online professional development system that delivers special education-related training to all staff that support students with exceptionalities. The web-based systems help administrators work more efficiently and effectively, saving time and money. The company has a 99 percent renewal rate and is continually innovating and customizing its content and software to meet customers' evolving needs.
